Action Memorandum No. A-27Date 5 July 1962

TO : Aast. for Coordination - (for information)

SUBJECT :

REFERENCE:

1. On 3 July Mr. Coyne called and we found that Friday morning, 20 July, 10:30 a.m., was a mutually convenient time for the DCI to meet with the Gray-Langer-Murphy panel which is reviewing covert action. (Action to CA Staff to see that the DCI has all of the background material necessary for this meeting.)

2. Mr. Coyne advised that he was leaving on 21 July for a trip which would last until 6 August and which would be concerned chiefly with military intelligence. He will be accompanied by General Carroll and possibly others from DIA.

50X1

3. He advised that General Doolittle would be looking into FI and FM activities prior to the next Board meeting (September 28 and 29) and would be contacting us for briefings probably in the second week of September.
